

Big League Line-up Celebrates Halloween at Miracle League of San Diego

Brad Ausmus, Heath Bell, Bud Black, and Mark Loretta expected Saturday

SAN DIEGO, CALIF. – October 24, 2014 – The Miracle League of San Diego celebrates Halloween on Saturday, October 25, 2014, with Celebrity Pitcher Day and Halloween Costume Day. All players, coaches, volunteers and buddies are invited to wear Halloween costumes. Celebrity pitchers will also be on the mound for all of the games from 10:00AM- 4:00PM at Engel Family Field, a Little Padres Park in San Dieguito Park, 1628 Lomas Santa Fe Drive, Del Mar, CA 92014 and 10:00AM- 2:00PM at Green Field, 7th & G Ave Coronado, CA 92118.

The Miracle League of San Diego was created in 2005 so children with special needs would have the opportunity to play organized baseball in San Diego. Saturday, Miracle League players will have the rare opportunity to come face to face with some of their favorites Big Leaguers. Expected at Engel Family Field are Brad Ausmus, All-Star catcher and currently manager of the Detroit Tigers; Heath Bell, former San Diego Padres; Bud Black, manager of the San Diego Padres; Mark Loretta, former San Diego Padres All-Star second baseman.

At the Miracle League Coronado field, celebrity pitchers include William 'Bill' Gore, San Diego Sheriff; Jane Mitchell, author and host of "One on One"; Casey Tanaka, Mayor of Coronado; John Weisbarth, local sportscaster.
